It's Official: Fido's Freedom Further Fraught

Andover's dog days have begun. Not the typical summer weather so designated, but the actual canines who romp the streets of town are now officially ordered restrained in their area on days when the refuse collection service is passing in their neighborhood. Town Clerk Elden R. Salter, was notified this week that the bylaws approved by vote of the annual town meeting have been approved by the Attorney General's office. Posting of the new bylaws, or amended regulations, by the town clerk this week, thus will make the new section of the animal control law enforceable, and carry with it a $25 fine for violation. Also approved by the Attorney General's office was the new bylaws prohibiting consumption of alcoholic beverages in public streets or property. These regulations were also adopted at the annual town meeting in April. The new provisions of the leash law, so called, provide for the restraint of dogs on days when the collection service is in operation in the particular area or neighborhood of town. The hours of restraint are 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Increased Patrols, Appeals Aimed At Curbing Thefts

By Robert E. Finneran
Managing Editor

Rescheduling of plain clothes officers and increased police patrols, plus an appeal for public awareness of unusual activity in their neighborhood has been initiated by Andover police in an effort to either apprehend the "pros" working over the town to the tune of about $100,000 in the first six months, or provide a solid deterrent to further house breaks.

In addition to taking some men off day shifts and reassigning them to night patrols, police officials are asking townspeople to create what virtually amounts to a police force of 26,000 by reporting all strange or unusual occurrences in their neighborhood.

The special patrols will be assigned specifically to areas where there has been a concentration of breaking and entering investigations.

Sgt. Robert Parker of the Andover police detective division, reported this week that the town has been the object of what he terms professionals, who know exactly what they are looking for, aware of the value of items taken and apparently where to dispose of the loot.

It is felt that the thieves are operating out of the Boston area and their goal is silver and valuable jewelry, with furs also included.

There have been 17 arrests since the first of the year, some of those apprehended coming from the Boston area.

What is disturbing to law enforcement officials is the fact that of the 17 arrests and court appearances made, none of the criminals is yet serving time. They are either still awaiting further court action or free on bond, awaiting appeals of their case to higher courts.

Sgt. Parker reports that those making the breaks and thefts in Andover know exactly what they want and are professional in every way.

They do not disturb or upset a house to any degree. They take the valuable silver, plates, collectors items, antiques in some cases, and jewelry of a valuable nature. They will search through jewelry boxes to take only the items of considerable worth, leaving the "costume" or lesser value jewelry behind.

The police official said it is difficult to determine what the thieves are doing with the material stolen. It is either be-

Chosen President-Elect Of National Exchange

Alfred Torrisi of the Lawrence Exchange Club was chosen 1976-77 president-elect for the New England District of the National Exchange Club during the New England Convention held at The Balsams resort area, Dixville Notch, N.H.

In addition to his president-elect honor, Torrisi was named the New England District Director of the Year for 1974-75. Prior to the convention, he was among a select few District Directors throughout the United States to receive special commendation from the National Exchange Club. Torrisi served as supervisor of New England's Division Five territory.

A graduate of the University of Notre Dame, he has held the offices of Director, Vice President and President of the Lawrence Exchange Club during his eight years with the community service club. Included among Torrisi's other activities in the Greater Lawrence area, he is an active member and past president of the Greater Lawrence Home Builders, a Corporator for the Lawrence Savings Bank, a member of the Bon Secours - Lawrence General Joint Hospital Building Fund, a worker with the Merrimack Valley United Fund Drive, director for the St. Basil's Seminary, and member of the Bon Secours Mens' Guild. In the business world, Torrisi is assistant - treasurer with the Jackson Lumber Company in Lawrence.

Attending the convention with Torrisi was his wife, Maria. They reside in North Andover and have four children.

In total, nearly 400 Exchange Club members and their families and guests attended the conven-

Slipkowsky Promoted To Professor

Professor John N. Slipkowsky, CPA of North Andover, has been promoted to the rank of associate professor in the division of business administration at Merrimack College.

He has been on the college's faculty for the past six years teaching in the fields of accounting, finance and management. He is currently serving as associate director of the Merrimack College Business Research and Consulting Bureau, an organization serving small businesses in the Merrimack Valley.

He is a graduate of Bentley College, Suffolk University and received his MBA degree from Boston College's graduate school of management in Chestnut Hill.

Professor Slipkowsky resides at 55 Farnum St., North Andover, with his wife and four children.

Ballet At Shell

Four principal dancers of the Boston Ballet, who performed memorable roles last season, will be featured performers during "Ballet on the Esplanade." Tony Catanzaro, Ellen O'Reilly, Anamarie Sarazin and Laura Young will highlight ten free performances July 23 - July 27 and July 30 - August 3 at the Hatch Shell on the Charles River Esplanade.

Amsterdam In Historic Regiment

Richard Amsterdam of 39 Juniper Road, Andover, was sworn into active service on July 4 in the historically recreated 18th century British 10th Regiment of Foot.

Amsterdam will serve as a private soldier in the elite Grenadier Company, and will participate in many films, battle re-enactments, and historic celebrations during the Bicentennial period.

Members of this 100-man unit spend numerous hours perfecting their uniforms, equipment and drill so that they can appear in public today exactly as a British soldier would have appeared 200 years ago during the American War for Independence.

Active members are still being recruited, and interested men between the ages of 16 and 60 who are serious about joining this elite unit should write to: Recruiting Officer, 10th Regiment of Foot, 235 Old Westford Road, Chelmsford, Mass. 01924.

New Tewksbury Group Expressing Concerns

A group of Tewksbury residents, angered at only 2 per cent of the 10,000 registered voters voting approval of the $14.1 million budget, have formed a citizens' committee to combat the apathy of the local homeowners.

John Hadden, chairman of the United Tewksbury Interested Citizens (UTIC), said, "The new budget up almost $2 million over last year could send the tax rate up $8 to $9 this year." Last year's tax rate was $32.

The poor turnout at town meetings and elections in Tewksbury is due to an apathy caused by lack of information given voters. Evan Croft, member of the UTIC Board of Directors said, "Every two months we are sending out a newsletter to residents informing them of what is going on in their town."

The board of directors, in their first letter sent out this past week, said, "This year our town officials will spend $10 million of our money. To have a voice in how this money is spent, we must know our town government."

The citizens group wants to bring "government activities out in the open and in line with the needs and interests of the taxpayers."

"Tewksbury is growing. To insure good schools for our children, to maintain high property values, to attract and retain industry to help with property taxes, and to establish a good town image in neighboring communities Tewksbury needs a concerned citizenry."

"UTIC's purpose is to bring issues and information to you (citizens) as clearly and as openly as possible in the hope that when the two sides have been presented, you will voice your opinions in town committee meetings or more importantly you will cast your vote in town meetings and elections."

The Andover School of Montessori has chosen Mrs. Rosalie Butterfield and Mrs. Susan Real as teachers for the 1975-1976 school year.

Mrs. Butterfield has a B.A. in Elementary Education from San Francisco State College, an M.Ed. and an American Montessori diploma from the College of Notre Dame in California. She also has a Teaching Certificate from California and Massachusetts for the K-8 grades. Mrs. Butterfield has had experience in Montessori Education at the Ross Academy Montessori School in California and the Country School of Montessori in Concord, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Real has a B.A. in English Literature from New York University and an American Montessori diploma from the Ithaca Montessori Teacher Training Program at Cornell University. She has had teaching experience at the Princeton Montessori School in Princeton, New Jersey and the Building Blocks School in Staten Island, New York.

The teachers will be present at an open house on July 28, 7:30 p.m. at the school which is located on the ground floor of St. Augustine's School on Central and Chestnut Streets, Andover.

This informal event will give the public an opportunity to view the school's classroom, see the varied Montessori materials and hear the teachers discuss Montessori education.

The Andover School of Montessori will begin Sept. 10, with two sessions per day - morning and afternoon with not more than twenty students in each period.

For further information please contact Mrs. James Hinkel, Mrs. Bradley Howes or Mrs. A. William Peck, all of Andover.

ing sold some distance from here, or even the New England area, or being fenced somewhere.

Too, the silver is apparently being melted down, although it is difficult to imagine a reputable silversmith or manufacturer obtaining quantities of the metal from anyone other than a reliable supplier.

But, what else can be done with such items as a monogrammed silver service, for instance.

While there is a monetary value available, the actual worth to the property owner is often much greater.

The actual amount of personal property reported stolen in the 131 house breaks investigated since January 1, is $96,152.

But that figure can be increased considerably when one considers actual replacement value, sentimental value or the loss of heirloom pieces.

A silver service obtained as a wedding gift many years ago, in addition to having personal value impossible to figure, has probably tripled in actual worth over the years.

Jewelry falls into a similar category.

One woman, whose home was broken into, recently attempted to replace some candle sticks which had been a valued household possession for over 40 years.

She found that the holders, which were $300 when obtained, were now $950 and were not available from the original cast, but were imitation.

Duplication of the silver tableware she had obtained as a wedding gift would be possible for some $5,000 more than the original cost.

Police are aware of the feeling among some townspeople, particularly those who have been victimized by the burglars, that nothing is being done about the situation.

As one officer noted, "I would be to if I were ripped off and lost a bundle of valuables."

But, the same officer notes, the department would like to get into the position of getting to the barn before the horse is stolen, to use an old pralance.

Key to cleaning up the rash of housebreaks is an alert citizenry and reporting any strange cars, lurking in their area, people acting suspiciously in the neighborhood.

Reporting such items to the police will bring a quick response.

People should not hesitate to report anything suspicious. "We'd rather go out on 100 false alarms, so to speak, to catch one or two housebreakers, or to prevent the break, than to allow the thieves to operate unnoticed until after their work has been accomplished.

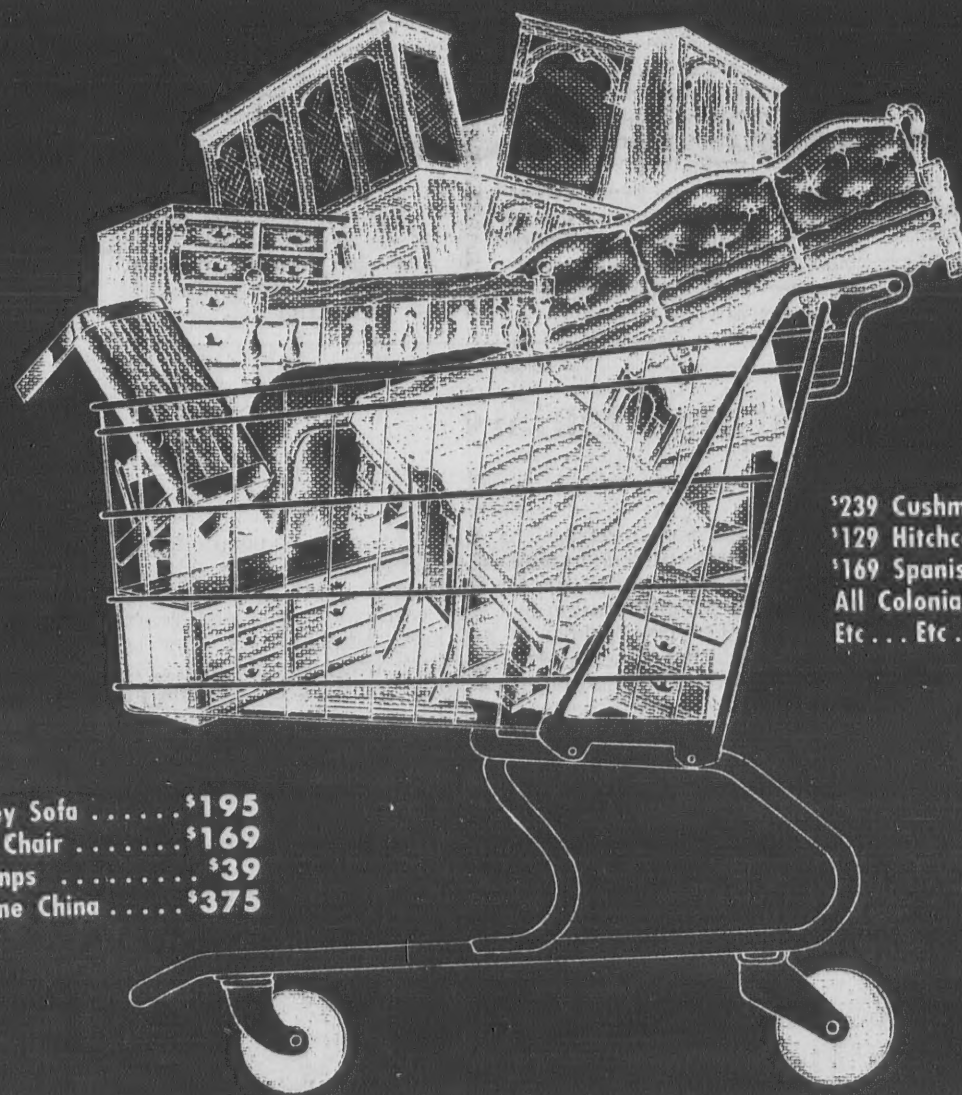

The real problem stems from the pros working the area in a smooth manner. Their actions can often go undetected, even though their entry to the area may arouse suspicion.

In the Chestnut street area, at the scene of a recent break, a man was out walking his dog one evening and exchanged a

Making A Check For History

Examining Historic Houses

If you see a young lady driving slowly down your street or parked in front of your house carefully examining it, don't be alarmed.

She isn't casing the joint! She's Nancy Stack, professional planner hired by the Bicentennial Committee and the Historical Commission to do a comprehensive survey of all the historical, architecturally significant buildings in Andover.

A similar survey is also underway in North Andover, conducted by Planner Steven Roper

Nancy Stack, professional planner checks one of Andover's older homes on Locke street, to establish its historical and architectural significance. She has been employed by the Bicentennial Commission and the Andover Historical Society to make the survey during the summer.

who is orientating Nancy to the area half a day per week.

Forms on file with the Massachusetts Historical Commission which were compiled by a Junior League survey in the '60's give some information along with old maps to begin with, but Nancy says from her experience in similar work in Connecticut, "You have to go on every street in town. New developments sometimes surround an old farm house that may be very important both historically and architecturally."

Nancy will be in Andover for 10 weeks. When the actual listing of the buildings is complete, she will begin historical research of them and pursue that in the time remaining to her before she returns to her second year of studies as a City Planner at Harvard Graduate School of Design.

Miss Stack graduated Magna Cum Laude from Wesleyan University in 1974. Last summer she worked in New Britain, Conn. to help set up that city's first Historical District.

Identification

In support of Operation Identification, the library has an engraving machine available to patrons to mark personal valuables. Identification numbers (eg. social security number) should be engraved on stereos, T.V. sets, typewriters, and other valuables to discourage theft of these items, by making it more difficult for thieves to dispose of stolen goods. A sticker stating that your valuables have been engraved will be provided and should be put in a conspicuous place in your home.

This is just a reminder that the library has available two passes to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Each ticket admits two people to the Museum free of charge and also provides for a discount at the Museum shop and Museum programs (ie. films, concerts). Children's Room News

By Jan Johnson

We have two special programs planned for the week of July 21 - 25. A Chalk-In will be held on Wednesday July 23 at 10:30 a.m. weather permitting. (Raindate is Thursday at 10:30) Children of all ages are invited to come a draw a picture or color a design on the sidewalk outside the library on Essex Street. Prizes will be awarded in several age groups. Of course we will supply the chalk.

Older children (probably grade 2 up) will be interested to know that a Karate Demonstration by Larry Giordano from Methuen is planned for Friday, June 25 at 2. People of all ages are invited to this program which will be held on the lawn outside the Children's Room if possible, but in the Hall upstairs (meet us in the Children's Room) if it rains.

The Wednesday afternoon Feature Film for July 23 will be Treasure Island. As usual the film will start at 3. It is a long film (1¼ hours) so please do not send or bring very young children. Parents should plan to stay with children under 6 years of age. Admission is free to children who have library cards (library cards are available at the Children's Room Desk if you have a parent along) and their friends. Join us.

Don't forget the regularly scheduled summer programs too. The Laura Ingalls Wilder Club meets Mondays at 7 (children going into grade 3 and up). The Yellow Balloon, our

Brooks Statue Was Second, More Similar

The statue of Phillips Brooks, which stands in the Common in North Andover, is actually the second and more reasonable likeness of the famed Bishop.

Dedicated 50 years ago last Sunday in impressive ceremonies on the green in the "olde centre" the statue was done by Bela Pratt, who was commissioned to do the work, after an initial statue in Boston met with considerable dissatisfaction.

Rev. Phillips Brooks, had a long association with North Andover, then a section of Andover when he was conducting his ministry.

The family home, on Osgood street, across from Academy Road, was his summer residence. His mother, Mary Phillips was born there, and her marriage to William Gray Brooks took place there. After living for 40 years in Boston, the family returned to what is now known as Phillips Manse.

According to the TOWNSMAN account of the dedication ceremonies 50 years ago, it is indicated that the initial statue of the religious leader was commissioned through a fund in Boston. Contributions from $5,000 to ten cents poured in and within ten years after Rev. Brooks' death, Augustus St. Gaudens consented to take on the work.

Upon completion of the statue there was much displeasure among the subscribers, feeling that the likeness was not sufficient.

An admirer of Brooks felt that Bela Pratt, who had been personally acquainted with Brooks during his ministry at Trinity church in Boston, was capable of producing a more fitting piece of work.

With funds remaining from the St. Gaudens' effort, plus additional public subscription, the second statue was created.

After the work was finished, there was effort to replace the original statue in Boston, which met with further displeasure and a movement was initiated to locate it in North Andover, "the little country town that meant so much to him in his lifetime." The work proceeded and the statue placed and dedicated 50 years ago last Sunday.

Probably known more for his writing of the Christmas Carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," Bishop Brooks was a noted churchman in his day serving at Trinity Church in Boston.

He was in India on a year's vacation when the question of disposal of the house on Osgood street was under consideration. He wired his brother to secure the property for his personal summer residence.

He had a study in the house with a special desk and a massive table made to order to suit his needs. From here, he once wrote a friend, describing his surroundings "there is a peace and quiet to a terrible degree."

As for his influence on the community, he interested the entry to the church, given in memory of their father. The subject is "The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple by His Parents."

Brooks felt that this was a lasting memory to parents as well as the grandparents' gift of four sons to the ministry.

Brooks' love for the Andovers could be seen in the comment, "Andover, everywhere and always, first, last, she has been the manly, straight-forward, sober, patriotic New England town." Words which graced the first publication of the TOWNSMAN in 1887 and carried under the banner for many years.

Accounts of the dedication ceremonies in the TOWNSMAN of 50 years ago states:

"It was fitting that the dedication of this statue, erected to the great heart of the church, should be carried out in the presence of all the people of the community, with sectarian differences forgotten.

"Roman Catholics and Protestants mixed together, and representatives of both participated in the program. The address of the occasion was given by Rev. William Dewart, rector of the Old North Church, Boston. Of all that Bishop Brooks ordained to the priesthood, only two remain in the active work, of whom the speaker is one. In the course of the service the following prayer was used, written by Phillips Brooks and chosen by his nieces as their uncle's favorite prayer.

"O Lord, by all Thy dealings with us, whether of joy or pain, of light or darkness, let us be brought to Thee. Let us value no

Plant Clinics Held At Horticulture Hall

Few people go out of their way to look for problems - but the Mass. Horticultural Society does - your gardening problems!

Every Thursday evening from 5 to 8 p.m., experts from the society conduct special Plant Clinics at Horticulture Hall, 300 Mass. Ave. in Boston, to give out free advice and assistance.

Home gardeners are invited to bring troublesome houseplants or any specific gardening problems to the Clinics, for treatment and advice from the experts.

If a houseplant is pot bound, and you don't know how to repot it, they will demonstrate the proper method of doing it, including soil mixture.

They will also show how you can make cuttings, so your home garden will be continually growing!

The Horticultural Society experts can also lend advice on larger projects, such as how to get the most out of a vegetable garden, at the Clinics.

The weekly sessions will be held every Thursday, from 5 to 8 p.m., throughout the summer, on the Falmouth Street side of Horticulture Hall, located across the street from Symphony Hall on Massachusetts Ave. in Boston.

Masons At Mountain Service

Masons from Andover's St. Matthew's Lodge journeyed to Owl's Head Mountain, Quebec, for Masonic service, June 21. They were joined by over 200 other Masons from eastern Canada, the northeastern U.S., Scotland, England and Jamaica.

Organized by St. Matthew's Past Master, Iain Wright, the trip required a five-hour bus ride followed by a ski lift to the summit. Mr. Wright hopes it will become an annual event for local Masons. Arthur Smith, present Master of the Andover lodge, concurred saying the services were, "very impressive."

The 75th annual services, first held atop the mountain in 1857, were presented by the Golden Rule Lodge of Stanstead, Quebec. They are held in a natural rock amphitheater near the summit of the 2425 foot peak which rises from the shores of Lake Memphremagog in southern Quebec.

Andover's area is 31.99 square miles, or 20,473.6 acres.

Ruth Club Continues Streak

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team stretched its current regular - season winning streak through six straight games Monday night, drilling Prospect Hill 12-0 behind the combined two-hit hurling of Mike Henderson and Steve Serley at the Playstead Field.

The victory, which followed the annual All-Star break during which time Andover traveled to Montreal for a pair of games, gave the locals a 10-3 Greater Lawrence League record, a 12-3 regular - season mark and a solid 16-3 overall ledger counting pre-season games.

Other highlights during the past week were standout performances by Andover representatives Tom Coffey and Bob Zwicker on the G-L All-Star team, and "hotly - contested" softball and basketball games at the annual family outing last Sunday.

Slamming PH, 12-0

Andover completed a three-game series sweep of Prospect Hill for the 1975 season, erupting for eight runs in the second inning and letting Henderson and Serley quiet the visitors' bats.

Mike Henderson, in lifting his personal pitching record to 5-1, hurled the first six innings and blanked Prospect Hill while surrendering only a first stanza single to Jim Paris and a sixth frame single to Joe Denuncio.

Hendy, who came within three outs of a perfect game against this same PH outfit earlier in the season, walked three, struck out three and threw only 74 pitches.

Steve Serley, making his initial mound appearance of the season, retired the side 1-2-3 in the top of the seventh to preserve Andover's third shutout of the campaign.

PH advanced only one runner beyond first base and hit just five balls out of the infield.

The victors collected the only run they would need in the bottom of the first inning. Bob Zwicker led with a double to centerfield, Tom Coffey drew the first of his three successive walks, and the pair pulled a double steal.

Zwicker then raced home with the winning marker on Dan Hayes' infield out, the first of three RBI for Hayes in the game.

The eight-run second canto, which saw 12 Andover batters parade to the plate, started with Steve Serley reaching on the only error of the game. PH pitcher R.J. Searle followed by issuing walks to Dave Farrell and Dave Birnbach.

Serley was caught off third base when a bunt attempt backfired, but he worked out of the rundown to score the second run. Mike Henderson was given a free pass to re-load the bases.

Bob Zwicker bounced a chopper to second base, and the throw home to catch Farrell was late as the score went to 3-0. Dan Grams' perfect safety-squeeze bunt chased home Birnbach to up the lead to 4-0.

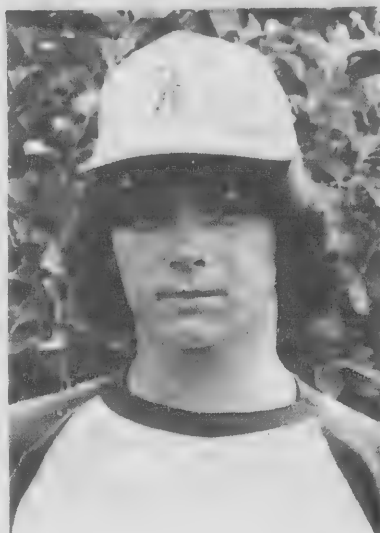

Coffey was then given the first of two intentional walks to again jam the bases, and Dan Hayes responded to the strategy by ripping a sharp two-run single to leftfield.

Gary Needham's infield out increased the spread to 7-0, after which Serley walked and moments later scored for the second time in the inning when Dave Farrell belted a long two-run double down the leftfield line.

Henderson continued to breeze along atop a 9-0 cushion, while the locals had third and fourth stanza threats go by the boards.

Completing The Rout
Andover polished off its bombardment in the sixth, notching three final runs and sending eight more batters to the plate.

Dan Hayes led with a walk, stole second and raced home on Gary Needham's RBI single up the middle. Needham took second on the throw home, third on Steve Serley's looping single and scored on a wild pitch. Serley trotted home with the last marker on another wild pitch.

Dan Hayes

Farrell finished the game with a pair of doubles, while Zwicker drilled a two-bagger and single to remain over .400. Larry Larrabee tacked on a solid single to leftfield in the sixth, while 13-year-olds Pete Feeney and Bill Stahley also hit well.

Dave Birnbach was a defensive standout in rightfield, tracking down three flyballs, while Farrell handled six chances flawlessly and Andover played errorless baseball.

Henderson has now allowed only 19 hits and six earned runs in six games, covering 42 innings of pitching.

All-Stars

The Greater Lawrence League All-Stars won their opening game against Lowell, 6-4, but bowed to Burlington in the District 9 championship game by a 6-2 score.

Andover's Tom Coffey was the complete-game pitching victor in the Lowell clash, working eight innings of six-hit ball and striking out 11.

Coffey also helped himself at the plate by reaching base four straight times with a triple, single and two walks. Tom scored twice as Lawrence battled back from an early 4-1 deficit to win the opener.

Bob Zwicker was a defensive star in centerfield, making two fine catches when the score was tied 4-4 in the seventh. Zwicker ranged far to his right to snag a long blast to left-centerfield, robbing Lowell's Tommy Villeneuve of a sure extra-base hit and preserving the win for Coffey.

Andover's Bill Stahley and Larry Larrabee were also named to the Greater Lawrence Ruth League 13-year-old All-Star unit, which begins play soon.

Pete Feeney and Jim DiTroia of the local team are both alternates.

Softball

The annual Father-Son softball game proved to be a well-played, titanic struggle this year with the Sons pulling out a 5-4 triumph in 10 innings at West Elementary School.

The win squared the series between the dads and offspring at 3-3.

Deceptive Mark Grams was the winning chucker, going the distance and scattering 11 hits to register the mound win. Losing hurler Rick Harrison surrendered 14 safeties.

The Sons raced to a quick 3-0 lead in the third stanza when Dan Grams singled, Dave Farrell singled, Bob Zwicker slammed an RBI double and Steve Serley cracked a two-run triple.

Serley was nailed trying to stretch the hit to a homerun, however, as Fathers' shortstop Howie Larrabee gunned a perfect relay throw to Harrison covering the plate.

The losers finally touched the tough opposing pitcher for a pair of runs in the fifth. Paul Kelly was safe on a two-out error, after which Dan Grams, Sr. dumped a run-scoring triple to rightfield and George Farrell followed with an RBI double.

The Dads pulled even 3-3 in the eighth when Paul Kelly singled and later scored on an error.

The Sons, blanked for six innings, struck for two runs in the top of the 10th. Mike Henderson singled, and after Dan Grams bounced into a forceout Dave Farrell lined his fourth single of the game.

Bob Zwicker lined a vicious shot to rightfield that fell in for two runs.

The Fathers made it interesting in the bottom half of the 10th. Rick Harrison led with a "tainted" homerun that glanced off leftfielder Dave Farrell's glove after a long chase, closing the gap to 5-4.

Howie Larrabee followed with a line drive down the leftfield side that went for a triple. Only the fact that Farrell tracked it down so quickly, and the fact that Larrabee stumbled rounding third, kept the game from being tied once again.

Larry Stahley then lashed a grounder to third, and Mike Henderson alertly caught Larrabee in a rundown for the first out. Paul Kelly singled but Mr. Stahley was nailed for the second out.

Dan Grams drilled a solid single to centerfield, but Kelly had to hold at third base when the ball was fielded cleanly and thrown home.

George Farrell slammed a long fly to leftfield, but son Dave tracked it down for the third out as the Sons held on for a 5-4 victory.

Dave Farrell finished with 4-for-5, while Bob Zwicker went 3-for-5. Steve Serley and Bill Stahley drilled two hits apiece, and solo hits for the winners went to Mike Henderson, Dan Grams and Larry Larrabee.

Dan Grams, Sr. had a 3-for-4 afternoon to power the Fathers. Paul Kelly and Rick Harrison were both 2-for-4, and solo safeties were stroked by Fred Serley, Larry Stahley, George Farrell and Howie Larrabee.

Howie Larrabee was the unqualified defensive standout of the game, making an unbelievable over-the-shoulder bare-handed catch of one ball and handling nine chances at shortstop.

Basketball

The Father-Son basketball series at Recreation Park went the other way, as the dads won a best-of-5 series three games to one.

The Fathers won the first game, 15-12, but the Sons tied the series with a 17-15 victory in game two. The dads then romped 15-4 and held on for a 15-13 win during the finale.

Competing for the Fathers were ace rebounder George Farrell, fast-breaking jackrabbit Paul Kelly, driving powerhouse Fred Serley, outside shooting artist Howie Larrabee and Rick Harrison.

The Sons' team featured Dave Farrell, Steve Serley, Bob Zwicker, Paul Kelly, Jr., Dan Grams (two games) and Larry Larrabee (two games).

Junior Girls Lose Opener

The Andover Junior Girls' Softball team took a 6 to 5 loss in their opening game against Wilmington. Losing in the top of the 6th, Andover fought back to tie up the game before the rains started. Eileen Sullivan drove home the tying runs to send the game into extra innings. But in the bottom of the 8th Wilmington's E. Teihlis singled home the winning run. Barb Cote pitched the win with Eileen Sullivan leading Andover. Eileen struck out four and walked three in a very strong effort. Audrey Saab starred offensively going four for four and scoring two runs. Peggy Alexander hit two sharp shots to center to drive in one run as did Ann Moriarty. Judy Girard and Tammy Lawlor produced a strong effort behind the plate. Joan Muise and Eileen Nee made exceptional plays in the outfield in the losing effort. Carol Gillan and Kathy Borruso were a fine shot to first combination. Denise Ouellette and Judy Brennan came off the bench with fine efforts.

This year's team is coached by Kathy Demers and being sponsored by the Andover Recreation / Community Schools Department. Their next home game is scheduled for Friday, July 18 vs. the same Wilmington team at the Sanborn School field at 6:15 p.m.

Hockey Shop Begins Half In Top Spot

The second half of the Andover Recreation / Community Schools Department Men's Softball season got underway with the Andover Hockey Shop claiming the top spot. After beating the Town Grill and Modicon in this past week's games.

The Andover Hockey Shop defeated the Town Grill 9-5. Keith Starks was the winning pitcher. Hitting stars for the Hockey Shop with 3 hits apiece were Keith Starks, Joe Leonardi, Tony Leonardi, Ted Palmeri and Mike Reznicow.

The Andover Hockey Shop bested Modicon in 8 innings as Fred Arragg allowed only one hit through 7 innings. He was reached for 3 hits in the 8th but some good defensive play by the Hockey Shop saved the game for them. Defensive stars for the Hockey Shop were Joe Leonardi and Bob Neil. Bob Moulton pitched well for Modicon allowing just 3 hits and Dennis Moore collected 2 hits.

The Town Deli came from behind to defeat Dana's 6-5 behind the pitching of Sam Corriveau with relief help from Dave Downey.

Art Sanderson collected 2 hits and scored 2 runs against his old teammates, Rich Geary had a clutch double driving in two runs and Bronson drove in 3 runs for the Deli.

The Deli plagued by a lack of hitting in recent weeks which saw the team average drop 60 points while losing 5 of 6 games after a good start collected only 6 hits during the contest.

The cost for boys attending the trip is $80, which includes the motel, meals, all games, gas, tolls, Phillies game, sight-seeing and transportation.

The trip will start Saturday,

Aug. 16 with the first three days being spent at Villanova University campus in Philadelphia at which time the boys will attend a Phillies game at Veterans Stadium and go on a sight-seeing tour which will include Independence Hall, the U.S. Treasury, Betsy Ross House and Valley Forge. The boys will also have use of an indoor basketball court, a baseball field and tennis courts at the campus.

If time allows a trip to the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., and Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., will be attempted.

On the fourth day of the trip, the group will move on to Trout Run, Pa., in the Pocono Mountains to the motel where the boys will stay for the remainder of the trip as they make trips to the Howard J. Lamade Memorial Field to watch the Little League games eight miles away.

The boys will also have use of a swimming pool, baseball field, basketball court and tennis courts in the vicinity of the motel.

At Williamsport the boys will witness the finest Little League players in the United States, competing for the championship.

Campers Receive Physicals

Last week 110 boys and 40 adults who will be attending Camp Onway, the Boy Scout Camp in Raymond, New Hampshire, were given physicals at the Ballardvale United Church, by a group of Doctors from the 323rd Medical Laboratory. This is a reserve unit stationed at the Boston Army Base and commanded by Col. William A. Bennett, Jr.

These doctors voluntarily gave their time in giving these physicals in order that these Boy Scouts could attend camp, because as in any good camp, a physical is required.

Troop 76, sponsored by the Ballardvale United Church with James Butler, Scoutmaster, were the hosts to the boys and adults who attended and received the physicals.

LL All-Stars Move Up

All Stars In The Swim

By Rick Harrison

The Andover American Little League All-Stars passed their first test in the single-elimination District 14 Tournament last Friday, blanking the Lawrence Tower Hill 'Stars 2-0 behind the solid one-hit chucking of big Bob Patterson at West Elementary School.

The AL Stars then clobbered Newburyport 20-7 last Tuesday night at the latter's field, setting up a quarterfinal clash against Lawrence Prospect Hill tomorrow night (5:45 p.m.) at West Elementary.

Either Bob Patterson or southpaw Bob Heidt will toe the rubber tomorrow evening for Andover.

The Andover National LL All-Stars were not as fortunate, bowing out of the tourney quickly when Lawrence Prospect Hill pinned a 10-1 defeat on the locals Monday night at West Elementary.

Amidst all the tourney activity the regular season continues, and in the AL the undefeated Red Sox (5-0) and Yankees (5-1) picked up a victory apiece last week to remain locked in a two-way dogfight.

The NL Giants kept on rolling, edging the Pirates 7-4 to register their eighth straight victory and boost their second-half record to 5-0.

AL All-Stars, 2-0

Bob Patterson of the Indians was the big story, tossing a one-hit shutout at Tower Hill to start the American League 'Stars off-and-wing. Patterson struck out seven and walked four during his gem, retiring 10 straight batters at one stretch.

The large righthander lost the no-hit bid in the sixth - and - final stanza, when Tower Hill leadoff man Jim Vachon cracked a double just over the head of AL centerfielder Steve Rathbun.

Losing hurler Ed Cockcroft was almost as good, surrendering only three hits, fanning six and issuing three free passes.

Andover American "stole" the only run it would need in the bottom of the first inning. Chris Doherty (Yanks) walked and advanced to second on a single by Ed Powers (Red Sox).

Bob Heidt followed by grounding into a forceout, with Doherty racing to third on the play. Chris scored on the front end of a delayed double steal, making it 1-0.

The AL 'Stars netted their final marker in the second stanza. Steve Rathbun walked, Greg

The Andover American Little League All Stars, currently involved in tournament play, get to cool off after a workout. The team was honored for their work at a pool party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bruk last Thursday night.

Nicastro was hit by a pitch and Ted Kelley beat out a bunt to load the bases.

Tom Hetley bounced into a forceout as Rathbun was cut down at the plate. Doherty then lashed a grounder to third. The Tower Hill third baseman stepped on the bag for the second out, but his throw home for the doubleplay was too late to catch the sliding Nicastro.

Ted Kelley (Red Sox) doubled in the fourth canto for his second hit and the only other safety the AL managed.

The winners' airtight defense was led by second baseman Tom Hetley (Red Sox), who handled four chances, first sacker Bob Heidt (Yanks), rightfielder Chris Doherty with three putouts and shortstop Ed Powers.

Another Win, 20-7

The Andover American club rattled 17 hits around the Newburyport diamond in second-round action, building up an 18-0 lead in the fifth and stretching their tourney scoreless - inning string to 10 straight before the home team rallied for seven runs over the last two frames.

Steve Rathbun pitched the distance, allowing five hits and striking out four to secure the triumph.

Bob Patterson guided the muscular AL offense with 3-for-4, including a double and three RBI. Bob Heidt was also 3-for-4 with a two-bagger and one ribbie.

Ted Kelley lashed a double and single for two runs, while Ed Powers went 2-for-5 with a two-bagger and one RBI.

Pinch-hitter Tom Wilkins had a perfect 2-for-2 night with a run-scoring single. Steve Rathbun helped his cause with 2-for-4 and three RBI, while Tom Hetley netted one hit and three ribbies.

Completing the assault with RBI singles were Jeff Nicastro and Mike Reilly, while Powers starred defensively at shortstop.

The AL All-Stars struck for three runs in the first, two in the second, eight in the pivotal fourth, five in the fifth and two in the sixth stanza.

NL All-Stars

The National League All-Stars ran headlong into a buzzsaw, facing a Lawrence Prospect Hill squad that had already clobbered Lowell Highland 16-5 in an earlier tourney tilt.

Neither Fred Foote (Giants), Mike Brown (Cards) or Ken Smith was able to stem the visitors' offensive tide during the 10-1 romp.

Foote drilled a pair of hits for the NL, while Bob Meier (Giants) had a hit and scored the lone run for the losers.

JoJo Cameratta did the winners' pitching and helped his own cause by spiking two singles. Phil Bell homered for Prospect Hill, Greg Sapienza had two safeties and leftfielder Chris Zahen robbed Andover's Tim Richards of a possible homerun with an outstanding catch.

So, it's quickly back to the business of the regular season for the National Leaguers.

Red Sox, 9-2

The Red Sox moved a step closer to the Town Championship playoffs and undisputed possession of the AL title, blasting the Indians 9-2 behind a solid 13-hit offense.

Ed Powers was superb on the mound, permitting only three singles while whiffing 11 and walking one.

The Sox jumped on losing chucker Ron Jones for four runs in the third inning, then tacked on three more in the fifth for insurance.

Tom Wilkins and Tom Hetley powered the onslaught with 3-for-4 days, including a double apiece. Mark Rogers hammered a two-run double, while Todd Zimmerman and Tim Morris slugged RBI two-baggers.

Other singles were banged out by Dick Kelley, Powers, Richie Sambuco and Ted Kelley.

Defensive standout for the Red Sox with two excellent plays was third baseman Jeff Demers.

The Indians received infield hits from Bob Patterson and Frank Beaty, while Ken Taylor stroked a solid single and Beaty was also a defensive sparkplug in centerfield.

Yankees, 12-3

The Yankees kept pace in the AL by dumping the White Sox, 12-3, as pitchers Glen McIntyre and John Maginnis pooled talents for a two-hitter.

The Yanks pushed across five runs in the first inning and then scored in every frame but the fifth. They lashed 10 hits and seven different players collected RBIs.

Vinnie Keegan went 2-for-2 with a long homerun and single, while Dennis Glynn was 3-for-4 (all singles).

Glen McIntyre was on base five straight times with a double, single and three walks. He also scored three runs.

Bob Heidt and Keith Matheson drilled two-baggers and Chris Doherty chipped in a single.

White Sox chucker Tom McDonald doubled, while other all-around standouts were Mike Ganem, Mike Chiklis and Tim

Corkery. Ganem made several fine defensive plays at shortstop. Giants, 7-4

The Giants stopped the Pirates, 7-4, as winning pitcher Wayne Merola fashioned a five-hitter and struck out six.

Carmen Scarpa, Dave Robinson and Bob Meier delivered the key basehits for the leaders.

Defensive stalwarts for the Giants were shortstop Fred Foote, first baseman Dave Leitch and outfielders Eric Teichert and Scarpa.

Losing chucker Ralph Hancock and Bill Caselden stroked hits for the Pirates, and Caselden doubled as a defensive star at shortstop.

Concerts

The Recreation / Community Schools Department will be conducting a series of concerts in the Central Park on Tuesday evenings from 7 - 8:30 p.m. The programs will consist of professional groups known throughout New England. The Apollo String Quartet will play this Tuesday, July 22. In case of rain the concert will be held in the East Junior High School.

Playgrounds are in full swing now after having completed two full weeks of activities. The highlight of this past week was a trip to the Worcester Science Center with more than 225 children making the trip.

On July 23 the playgrounds will take a trip to Salisbury beach for a Beach Party. Registration forms for the trip are now available at the playgrounds.

Ballardvale

Ballardvale playground soundly trounced Sanborn in softball this week by a reasonable score of 13-4. Unfortunately, the St. Amands late sleeping hour deprived the 'Vale of the necessary manpower to defeat Sanborn's determined hockey team. Wednesday's trip to the Worcester Science Center provided a fun day off the playgrounds. Chucky Becotte and Raymond St. Amand ran wild, while George Rouff fed the Polar Bears. Bobby "Bepop" had his troubles too.

Thursday's hike to Sid White's dairy was postponed because of the weather, as were the games with West. Doherty's polished girl's softball team lost most of their shine as Julie Hessth, Sandy White, Robin and Ann Gudger, Bev White, Colette Gilday, and Helen Steeves plowed their way to a 17-3 victory with the help of little Mac, Ryan St. Amand. Carol Caputo cried as the boys cheered Robin Gudger's homerun.

Roger St. Amand did more than cheer. The "Kingers" tournament was won by Raymond and Russell St. Amand. Also this week, Ballardvale started loaning equipment out overnight to anyone who requests it during the day. The equipment shed will also be open twice a week after supper for equipment loans. So if you need some equipment, come and see us - Kim, Janette, Russ and Greg.

Doherty

With the summer getting into full swing Doherty playground is speeding right along with games and activities for all. The second week proved to be a good one despite losses by both the boy's hockey - softball team and the girl's softball team. The older group spent Monday drilling and practicing for the upcoming games while the younger children spent time hunting for treasure. The treasure? - What else! A flower pot!! It may have seemed strong, but to the winner Heather Hughes, Betsy Murphy and Debbie Robertson, it was quite important. After all the pots had been accounted for Doherty Farms was officially opened with the young gardeners trying their skill at bean growing.

Tuesday the sports season opened. In the first game of the week the Doherty Downtowners went down to defeat at the hands of West Playground. Despite the loss, the team had a few standouts. With things going quite easily for West, sitting on a 4-0 lead and two outs in the fourth, Jim Thomson got a base hit. Mike Silverman then followed with a home run to cut the lead to 4-2. Andy Billings flied deep to left to end the inning. The lead was then cut to 4-3 in the fifth when singles by Glenn Demers, Mark Lefebvre and Tommy Galvin produced Doherty's last and final run. Defensive standouts were shortstop Greg Sacco and pitcher Shawn Flanagan.

In hockey it was again West on top by a score of 12-7. Goal scorers for Doherty were Greg Sacco - 3, Mike Flynn - 1, Shawn Flanagan - 2, and Tommy Galvin - 1.

In Thursday's action, errors again cost the Downtowners as they fell to a 10-3 defeat versus Shawsheen. Again Shawn Flanagan pitched an excellent game but his defense did not hold for him, as all the Shawsheen runs were unearned. Along with poor fielding the Doherty bats were cold with Andy Billings, Glen Demers and Mike Silverman getting the only hits for Doherty. Despite the losses the boys are hanging in there waiting and hoping for some better luck in the upcoming games.

In the other sports, the Doherty Shady Ladies fell to defeat by a close score of 14-3 to Ballardvale. Our girls were not without their shining moments however. In the final inning Mary Trainer and Pat Doherty came through with homeruns. Our Shady Ladies are again practicing anxious for future games in hopes of a victory.

Other contests this week included a scavenger hunt with all sorts of hidden treasure. The list of winners includes Marybeth Trapanier, Debbie Robertson, Mark Jergen, Tom Morton, Deana Bardetti, Jennifer Bardetti, Jay Trapanier, Diane Jergen, Sarah Corbett and Kirsten Merit. Activities for the upcoming weeks include a trip to Salisbury Beach, cookouts, waterfights and games.

Sanborn

The Sanborn Sluggers and their cheerleaders are doing well. The cheerleaders are all set with their blue and gold shakers and voices that would knock you over.

Have you ever tried to color without using your hands? Well, we did here at Sanborn. It was quite a show. Sue Beattie and Sue West proved to be true artists.

To Visit Mission In Africa

Melissa Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Baldwin, 5 Prides Circle South, has been chosen as a summer participant in the Assemblies of God international youth witnessing program, Ambassadors In Mission (AIM). She has been assigned to a team that will visit Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa. Melissa will participate in numerous forms of evangelism including door-to-door visitation, choral appearances, and an evangelistic crusade. The group will be in Nairobi for approximately three weeks.

Since the program was initiated in 1966, an estimated 3,900 young people, ages 16 to 24, have traveled to 28 countries and have seen 39,000 people accept the Christian faith. The Rev. J. Phillip Hogan, executive director of the Department of Foreign Missions of the Assemblies of God reports that many candidates for foreign missions service said they received incentive for missions work through participating in an AIM outreach.

An estimated 450 Assemblies of God young people will be involved in the overseas AIM Program this summer. Teams will be assigned to such countries as India, Tanzania, Kenya, Belgium, Spain, Holland, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Honduras and Mexico.

Most of the AIMers visiting foreign countries will be paired with national young people for house-to-house visitation. When the AIM teams leave, the national churches will implement a six-phase follow-up program to retain new converts.

An estimated 10,000 Assemblies of God young people participate in AIM annually. Approximately ninety per cent of the participants are involved in outreaches that are conducted within the continental United States.

New Nursery School To Open In September

The new Community Cooperative Nursery School will open in September at the Unitarian Church, 244 Lowell St., Andover. It will be a non-profit school, operating five mornings a week for 3 to 5 year olds. Parents will be encouraged to take an active part in running the school.

Officers include Julia Morse Dix, president; Carolyn Bonier, vice president; Janice Neilson Legg, treasurer; and Michele Edelsberg, clerk.

A major goal of the school will be an integrated approach to language, math, social studies, motor, art, music and drama.

Objectives in art, for example, typify the objectives of the school - to help provide materials for exploration and discovery, to help children follow up their ideas and interests, to help children grow in independence and flexibility. The creative process involves the whole child and contributes a great deal to the development of self identification.

A special feature of Community Cooperative will be science because of the natural way it relates to children's curiosity and everyday interests. Fish, frogs, insects, guinea pigs, rabbits, gerbils, snakes and mice will all be at home in the school, encouraging interest in animal care.

Registrations are now being accepted for children born before December, 1972. Interested parents may contact teachers Julia Dix or Rachel Graber for information or a brochure.

To Receive Commissions

Two Andover residents have begun the final stage of a 13-month program at the Massachusetts Military Academy which will hopefully end with commissioning as second lieutenants in the National Guard.

Charles E. Briere of Colonial Drive and Jeffrey P. Manning of 37 Porter Road are among the 52 senior cadets attending a 15-day encampment at Camp Curtis Guild.

Briere, in the Guard since 1971, is a graduate of Lowell Technological Institute. He is a salesman for Bearing Specialty of Boston.

Manning has been a member of the Guard for three years. He is a student at Suffolk University and works part-time as a mechanic.

Graduation and commissioning ceremonies are scheduled for July 26.

Like a lot of other people these days, Marion Heinrich, in our Customer Service Department, saves money by "brown bagging it" a couple of times a week. And the money she saves goes right into her savings account every Friday, where it earns 5 1/4% interest - so her savings make money for her.

Any time you can sandwich in some savings, come see Marion in our main office. She'll be glad to tell you about the many Andover Bank savings plans, all earning the highest interest allowed by law. Summer Evening At The Esplanade

What to do on a lazy summer evening?

How about a trip to Boston and an evening with the Boston Symphony Esplanade Orchestra at the Hatch Memorial Shell.

That's what a group of Junior and Senior High Fellowships and their friends at Ballard Vale United Church did Tuesday night.

The enjoyable evening began with a cavalcade of cars from the church at 5:15, assembling on the grounds on the banks of the Charles for picnic lunches.

Feeding the birds, and just plain good fellowship preceded the raising of the baton by Harry Ellis Dickson, assistant conductor, at 8:30 p.m.

A Downtown Area With A Future

Announcement this past week by the ASB Development Corporation of plans for a $2.5 million building for Andover center gives to the community what many a business district yearns for - - a future.

The development corporation, a subsidiary of the Andover Savings Bank, has, by its action expressed a faith in Andover's central business district, and has continued a confidence initiated a few years ago when it purchased the property, so long vacant and at times an eyesore.

Plans include providing shops and offices for the downtown area, along with a parking garage underneath.

In its acquisition of the property a few years ago, and its announcement this past week, ASB Development Corp., has, in fact, shored up a feeling among Andover businessmen to work toward improvement of the business district on their own, and without federal or state assistance.

Not so long ago, about 15 years to be exact, an urban renewal project was placed before the voters of the town. The plan would have provided Andover with new town facilities, such as fire, police stations and town hall, parking lots and new, or improved buildings in the downtown area.

But the voters, advised by the principals actually involved in such a project, the businessmen, asked that it be rejected and allow the town and its people develop the area themselves.

For the most part, the business people have followed through on their promise. There has been physical improvement and new construction in the downtown area.

Town facilities have been provided through annual town meeting action of the Andover voters, minus outside funding which would have resulted in some direction being provided by federal agencies.

The new building planned by ASB, will rise on a valuable piece of commercial property in the center of Andover beset over the years by problems.

Rogers Brook construction and easements to provide for encasing of the errant waterway en route through the land toward its eventual meeting with the Shawsheen River, posed a difficult construction problem.

Terrain of the area likewise presents major construction considerations.

Several developers had examined the area for possible construction and Andover Chamber of Commerce officials eyed the section for parking use.

Acquisition by ASB of the overall parcel, which encompasses land on Chestnut and Central streets as well, therefore, provided the necessary developmental funding and planning to adequately develop the property to its fullest potential.

In an era of economic concern, when downtown areas face problems of increasing magnitude, it is refreshing to view Andover's prospectus in this most favorable light.

Seldom are towns or cities provided with the physical evidence of confidence in the future of the downtown area which has been shown by the ASB Development Corporation.

Town Seals And Squeals

We chuckle a bit at the reports emanating from North Andover about changing the town seal, because it is not of historical significance.

Some people in the town where Andover was originally founded, have recently determined that the seal is at best inaccurate, in that only the date of the incorporation is carried on the official stamp.

While the community was settled over 300 years ago, 1646, North Andover separated from the South Parish, which became Andover, in 1855.

North Andover's seal has only the date of incorporation on it, and apparently some would like to see it more decorative.

It has been even suggested that the words "settled in 1646, incorporated in 1855," be placed upon the official stamp, along with some decorative display.

Considerable suggested wording and other items to be placed on the town's official stamp smacks somewhat of the circus barker who would place such things as the Declaration of Independence on the head of a pin.

Our feeling is to let the town's official stamp stay as is, and stop fooling with history.

There is a lot of historic lore which may or may not be factual and really wouldn't matter much if the records were set straight.

For many years, it was believed that Simon and Anne Bradstreet resided on Osgood street in North Andover, until some ardent historian determined that it was actually Parson Barnard who resided at the historic house.

We don't know who actually paid the rent, but for a long time it was appealing to have had Governor Bradstreet and his poetess wife, as former residents.

That's a little of what we mean by delving into the records and destroying some old time thoughts about a community.

Digging too deeply can sometimes be dangerous.

It might even be that if the records were searched thoroughly enough, it might be proven that the coat they gave Cutschamache for the territory in 1646 was moth-eaten, or that the owner of the land never received the six pounds he was due.

Those Raucous Dances In Shawsheen

A half century ago, Shawsheen residents complained about, what we must presume were some pleasant orchestral sounds emanating from the Balmoral Gardens.

The selectmen, at a special meeting on Monday morning, 50 years ago this week, granted a license to the Shawsheen Pharmacy, Inc., to conduct two dancing parties per week in Balmoral gardens not "to exceed the hour of 11 p.m., no minors under 17 admitted, and grounds policed at expense of licensee after the dance in order that there be no loitering.

"In deference to the residents of Shawsheen Village, who have complained about the noise and quality of the music, the sounding board must be faced toward the east."

We wonder what the attitude might be with today's dancing gyrations done to the tune of guitars and deafening amplifiers.

Vegetation in general is suffering greatly from the scarcity of rain this season. The clouds did lower rather threateningly yesterday but that did not serve to relieve the much parched earth.

Ray Cole, Will Hardy, Malcolm McTernan and Howard Bell have gone to Foster's Pond for a week or ten days of camping.

Michael McCormick, a section boss with the Boston and Maine railroad, residing on Essex Street, with his wife and family, sailed on the steamer, "New England," for Ireland. They will be gone about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville K. Cutler of Dorchester Street, Lawrence, are rusticated in West Andover for a few weeks.

Hardy and Cole are making repairs on the house in Ballardvale owned by the Pynchard Free School trustees.

Panama Canal: Trouble Ahead

by Jack Anderson
with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- State Department officials warn privately that the Panama Canal soon may be sabotaged, and anti-American riots can be expected in the streets of Panama.

For more than a decade, the State Department has been negotiating to return the sovereignty over the Canal back to Panama. This was the year it was supposed to happen.

But right-wingers in the Pentagon and on Capitol Hill have been fighting the idea for all they're worth. One resolution sponsored by South Carolina's Sen. Strom Thurmond called for "the undiluted sovereignty of the United States" over the Panama Canal.

And just a few days ago, the House voted overwhelmingly to deny funds for negotiating a new Panama Canal treaty.

This strong opposition has forced Secretary of State Henry Kissinger to back off the issue. As one insider put it, "Henry is better than a buzzard when it comes to smelling death. He knows the Canal treaty is a dead issue."

But in Panama it is a live issue. There will be sabotage attacks on the Canal and trouble in the streets, sure as shooting, if a new treaty isn't negotiated this year.

Fuel Flim-Flam: The oil barons gave the nation a Fourth of July present: higher gas prices. The price boosts came just in time to coincide with the heavy-driving season.

Of course, the oilmen claim this was all a coincidence. Higher costs, they say, forced them to raise prices.

But the truth is that the oil companies have learned from the Arabs. As gas became plentiful and prices began dropping, the major oil firms cut back their refinery production.

Rather than let their profits be determined by the whims of the free market, they merely produced less gasoline. Not enough to create a shortage, but just enough to send prices up before the big vacation season.

The arrogance of their timing, however, has caused new rumbles on Capitol Hill. There is talk in congressional corridors again of nationalizing the oil industry. A growing number of congressmen believes that the nation's energy needs are too vital to entrust to the care of the greedy oil tycoons.

Veto-Prone Congress: The Watergate scandal brought a major housecleaning on Capitol Hill. The political breezes blew in a number of reformers, who promptly set about making improvements.

The overwhelming Democratic majority was expected to ride roughshod over President Ford. Almost everyone, including the President himself, predicted that Congress would be veto-proof.

Instead Congress has been veto-prone. The former Congress overrode four out of eight Ford vetoes. But the new Congress hasn't been able to override a single veto.

For example, have been in session 17 days longer than a year ago, but they have passed 11 fewer bills. Most of the key measures are still awaiting congressional action.

Philippine Problems: President Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines is having his troubles. We recently reported, for example, that he offered a $50,000 bribe to a former Filipino official not to testify before Congress about corruption in the Philippines. Now he stands a chance of losing a rare opportunity to enhance his image. Here are the details:

The heavyweight champion of the world, Muhammad Ali, is scheduled to fight his preeminent challenger, Joe Frazier, in the Philippines this fall. As Ali put it, in his inimitable fashion, there will be a "thrilla in Manila."

Our sources report, however, that a group of Philippine-American Muslims have cabled Ali, urging him not to fight in Manila. Marcos would use the favorable publicity, they said, "to bolster his tyranny."

Ali is a deeply religious Muslim himself. There is a good chance, say our sources, that he will honor the request of his brethren.

Lot of Bull: Defense Secretary James Schlesinger recently displayed some satellite pictures taken over the African country of Somalia, and pointed out some large structures which he said were Russian missile bases. In response, the Soviets claimed the buildings were actually a meat-packing plant. Schlesinger, with a sly smile, declared that the Russians must be processing a steer "the size of Paul Bunyan's ox."

Fuddle Factory: Freshman Sen. Pat Leahy wants to create a select committee that will systematically abolish unnecessary government bodies. The Vermont Democrat points out that in the last 15 years, 236 federal agencies, boards and commissions have been established, but only 21 have been shut down.

Phantom Speeches: Rep. Bill Steiger, R-Wis., is trying to make an honest document out of the Congressional Record. For years, congressmen have been able to reprint undelivered speeches in the Record, just as if they had held their colleagues entranced.

Steiger, however, has persuaded 52 of his colleagues to support a resolution which would provide that nondelivered speeches appear in a different type face.

Earn Honors At Norwich

Three students from Andover earned recognition from Norwich University during the second semester of the 1974-75 college year:

Rodney and Jonathan Bentley, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Bentley, 79 Dascomb Road, Andover, were named to the dean's list. Rodney is a member of the Class of 1976 and Jonathan the Class of 1977.

To qualify for the dean's list at Norwich, a student must attain an academic quality-point average of at least 3.0, the equivalent of a "B" grade in all subjects.

Stephen K. Pulsford '77, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Pulsford, 18 Kathleen Drive, Andover, was promoted to Cadet Master Sergeant.

To receive rank as a commissioned or non-commissioned officer in the Corps of Cadets at Norwich, the nation's oldest private military college, a cadet must be proficient in academic and military subjects and must have demonstrated exemplary qualities of leadership.

Named Director Of Newport Festival

The Board of Directors of the Rhode Island Arts Foundation at Newport, sponsors of the annual Newport Music Festival held in this city-by-the-sea's fabled Mansions, has announced the appointment of Mark P. Malkovich as the new General Director of the festival. The Board also named John Wion of New York City as Music Director.

The Newport Music Festival, which will be presented from July 24 through August 2 in this well known summer colony, has been in existence for seven years and has become internationally known for the unique high quality performances of rare 19th century compositions offered each year. The Bicentennial theme of this year's festival is: 200 Years of Music U.S.A. and will offer programs of opera, ballet and instrumental music featuring music of neglected American composers - a most unusual tribute to America's musical past.

LaRochelle - Salling

Mrs. Robert A. LaRochelle

At home in Saratoga Springs, New York, are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrew LaRochelle, who were married June 28 at Saint Ann's Church in Kennebunkport, Maine.

The bride is the former Diana Newell Salling of Winchester, daughter of Mr. Raymond C. Salling and Mrs. Donald B. Drew. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond LaRochelle, 11 Stinson Road, Andover.

Dr. Laman Bruner of Kennebunk performed the 2 o'clock ceremony, and a reception followed at Overlook Cottage, the home of the bride, in Kennebunkport.

Given in marriage by her father, the new Mrs. LaRochelle was attended by Ramela Salling Coady of Montreal as matron of honor, and Dieder O'Neil of Andover, flower girl.

Joel LaRochelle of North Andover served as best man, and ushers included Drew C. Salling of Sanwood, N.Y., and Joel LaRochelle of North Andover.

The new Mrs. LaRochelle received her B.A. degree from Skidmore College, where she majored in French education. Her husband received a B.A. in social relations from Windham College, and is an organizer for Service Employees International Union in Albany, New York.

They took a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia.

DeRoche of Andover was flower girl.

Mrs. DeRoche chose a baby blue, A-line gown with a multi-colored floral coat, and an orchid corsage, for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Marcionis wore a pink jacket gown, and also an orchid corsage.

David T. Lane of Haverhill served as best man, and ushers were Dennis M. Donovan of North Andover, and Gary J. and Steven A. DeRoche of Andover, brothers of the bride.

John Sarro provided solo music for the ceremony, and Donald Harrison was organist.

The new Mrs. Marcionis, a graduate of Andover High, is employed at U.S.C.I. Division of C.R. Bard in Billerica, and her husband, a graduate of Lowell Tech, is employed at ALPS sportswear, Lawrence.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple is making their home in South Lawrence.

Marcionis - DeRoche

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Marcionis

Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Marcionis were married June 14 at St. Robert Bellarmine Church, Andover.

The bride is the former Diane Shirley DeRoche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armand J. DeRoche, 467 Lowell Street, Andover, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Marcionis of Lawrence.

The Rev. Jon Martin performed the 11 o'clock nuptial Mass and a reception followed at the Camelot, North Andover.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of silk organza and Cluny lace, with a wedding ring collar, Victorian sleeves, and a detachable chapel train trimmed with Cluny lace.

Her toque of Cluny lace was crowned with silk organza roses, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. David T. Lane of Haverhill, the groom's sister, served as matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Dennis M. Donovan of North Andover, Mrs. George J. Merrill of Chelmsford, and Mrs. Howard W. Matchett of Chelmsford, the bride's sister. Joyce Lee

Youth Concerts

The Recreation / Community Schools Department will once again be sponsoring youth concerts during July and August.

These concerts will feature top New England rock bands playing the most recent sounds of "Boogie & Bump" as well as original creations to make those summer evenings more enjoyable.

Completes Course

Ardena Plourde of Andover, a registered therapist, recently completed a three-credit course on the role of the registered occupational therapist in the long term care facility, given at North Shore Community College, Beverly.

All concerts will begin at 7 p.m. and run until 10 p.m. and will be held in Central Park.

The next concert will be Wednesday, July 23.

In case of rain the concerts will be held the following night.

O'Leary - Hamilton

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. O'Leary

Miss Katherine Ann Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hamilton, 14 Ballardvale Road, Andover, became the bride June 14 of Daniel Joseph O'Leary, also of Andover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius O'Leary, 39 Boston Road.

The Rev. Everett Bodge performed the 11 a.m. service in South Church, Andover, before a pulpit banked with greens. Large arrangements of white snapdragons and giant orchid mums decorated the side fronts of the church.

Keith Gould played selected organ music and the handbell choir played "Eidelweiss" as a special part of the wedding ceremony just before the marriage vows were spoken.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory slipper satin, featuring candlestick sleeves of heirloom lace, a sweetheart neckline, cinched waist and cathedral train. Her headpiece was a matching skullcap of lace and seed pearls, enhanced by an elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a crescent cascade of white phalenopsis orchids, stephanotis, ivy and baby's breath.

The bride was attended by Mrs. David Wheeler of Bradford as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mary O'Leary and Kim Loehr of Andover, and Mrs. Brian Linehan of Lawrence. Beth O'Leary of Andover was junior bridesmaid.

They wore halter-style, sleeveless gowns of orchid jersey, and hooded orchid capes. They carried bouquets of pink roses and white spider mums, with orchid-tinted baby's breath. The matron of honor carried white roses in her bouquet, and the junior bridesmaid's gown was pink.

Mrs. Hamilton chose a floor-length, princess-style gown in white chiffon, with a mandarin collar and flaring, three-quarter sleeves pleated at the edges, for her daughter's wedding. Splashes of pink decorated the dress and the pleating on the sleeves was of deep pink.

The groom's mother wore a floor-length gown of turquoise crepe, with long-fitted sleeves and pink and red roses embroidered at the waist.

Barry McGregor of Andover served as best man, and ushers included Michael Chamberlain of Lawrence, David Wheeler of Bradford, John and Jim Hamilton of Andover, and Peter Martellucci of Lawrence. Following a reception at the Ramada Inn, Danvers, the couple took a wedding trip to Nantucket. A graduate of Andover High School, the new Mrs. O'Leary attended Wentworth Institute in Boston. Her husband is also a graduate of Andover High.

Miss Jayne Ball of Larchmont, New York, became the bride June 22, of Thomas Auchterlonie, Jr., of Mamaronek, N.Y., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Auchterlonie, of 75 Red Spring Road, Andover.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Ball of Houston, Texas.

The Rev. Kenneth McKenzie performed the marriage at St. John's Episcopal Church of Larchmont, and a reception followed at the New Rochelle Beach and Tennis Club.

The bride wore a Mexican wedding dress trimmed with heavy cotton lace. She was attended by her sister, Cynthia Ball Owen as matron of honor, and bridesmaids included her other sisters, Dale Ball Aromadka and Julie Ball Franke.

Edwin P. Edwards served as best man, and ushers were Richard Owen and Ford Winter.

The new Mrs. Auchterlonie, received her B.S. degree from Texas Christian University, and her master's in education from the University of Arizona. She teaches in the Hommock Schools for exceptional children in Larchmont.

The groom, a 1963 graduate of Andover High School, received his B.S. degree from Springfield College, and his M.S. from the University of Bridgeport. He too also teaches in the Hommock Schools.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to the Virgin Islands.

December Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Crowley of 10 Karlton Circle, Andover, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lynne Lowell, to Steen Parsholt of Copenhagen, Denmark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kai Parsholt of Denmark and West Germany.

Miss Crowley is a graduate of Andover High School and Westbrook College, Portland, Maine.

Her fiancé attended Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, and is to be a graduate from Copenhagen School of Economics and Business Administration this year.

A Dec. 6 wedding is planned.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

We are writing in response to the statement in the July 3rd Eagle Tribune, concerning the qualifications for special education drivers for the Andover School System. We believe that the owner-operator requirement is of secondary importance while experience and proven capability are of primary importance for drivers of children with special needs.

As parents of a child with special needs who requires the kind of transportation in question, we are well acquainted with Mrs. Dorothy Piercy and are greatly impressed by her dedication and concern for all handicapped children. Her long-standing driving record for the Andover Schools is above reproach. She has often driven as an unpaid volunteer in order to insure adequate transportation to a particular event for these children. Her leadership in the struggle to provide recreational activity for children with special needs is well known. This can be attested to by the many parents whose children participated in the early swimming classes and summer recreational programs and softball games to which these children look forward so eagerly every year.

The children who have been in her charge demonstrate love and respect for her and realize that she is a true friend. As parents we also realize this and believe that her dedication, in addition to her proven capability, makes her eminently qualified.

We are, therefore, deeply concerned that capable, dedicated drivers, like Mrs. Piercy, be given full consideration when special education driving bids are awarded especially when they are the low bidders as in this instance. Children with special needs require such capable people to assist them continually in their struggle to overcome their handicaps.

does CHRISTIAN SCIENCE Really Heal?

Yes, it does. Because the healing Principle taught and practiced by Christ Jesus can apply to anyone at any time. New proofs of its healing power occur every day. Healing in Christian Science means much more than physical release. It means a victory over fear. A clearer understanding of God, and of yourself.

You're invited to learn more at our Sunday service. The Bible Lesson you'll hear will explain more of how Christian Science heals.

Won't you come this Sunday?

Playgrounds

In last week's hockey game against Ballardvale the Sluggers won 4-3 with Steve Kelley making 2 goals and Paul Pathiakos and Lance Hiett each making one. Our softball team wasn't quite as successful, but Jeff Kennedy, Paul Pathiakos and Peter Fernandes each scored.

While the majority of the playground was on a field trip to the Worcester Science Center the ones that remained behind had fun practicing the limbo and having relay races. Mrs. Najjar who accompanied Sanborn on the field trip said an awful lot of nice things about those who went.

Just a week ago Carolyn Collins held a tea party here at Sanborn. It was a lot of fun. Those attending the function were dressed in their party best. Shawn Bruce looked like a princess and Beth Kelley and Sue Hillman were out of this world.

Last Friday we tie-dyed T-shirts, Scott Miller's and Susie Estabrook's came out really beautiful! Many thanks go to Justine Koromhas and Frankie and Gabriel Bruno for helping to make our cook-out such a success.

Tomorrow is our big carnival. It should be lots of fun. Hope to see you all there.

A big thanks to our ice cream man Carl Cronin that visits us daily at noon.

Shawsheen

The Shawsheen Superstars got underway this week starting their season in hockey, softball, kickball and basketball. To make our playground distinguishable we designed our own T-shirts including both names and numbers. Our teams are doing very well with victories already racked up against South and Doherty. Outstanding players in softball and hockey included John Horan, Tommy Menzies, Jeff Demers and Bobby Wilkins. Of course they couldn't make it without the support of our cheerleaders led by Joyce Romano and Missy Witty.

Highlights of the week also included making fudge, painting our own playground cabinet in bright colors, starting of the longest gum wrapper chain in history and a trip to the Worcester Science Center.

With the huge numbers of bikes gathered each day we have plenty of experience in speed racing. Winners for this week are Peter Lemieux, Geoff Stafford and Paul Comado. We also had our obstacle course which included all playground activities, winners with amazing times of 43 and 45 seconds were John Suidut and Deana Martone.

The week was topped off with sand casting of hands and feet. Stick around to read about the bike hike, pie eating contest, and a birthday party, that will be written up for next week.

South

This week things really got off the ground at South. Popcorn making, string painting, sand casting and water fights were just a few of the fun things that we did. Carolyn Jones named our fort, Fort South. Jennifer Ward lost her loose tooth in our bubblegum blowing contest. The winners of this event included: 1st - David Doucette and Chris Saalfrank; 2nd - Karen Saalfrank and 3rd - Beth Ann Lancaster. Our relay race winners are 1st - Donna Jenkins, Chris Kovacs, Steve Raffale, Marie Meckel and Lauren McCormick. 2nd place - Dawn Aikman, Laurie Doucette, Tommy Noveline, Sebastian Tine and Jeff Znamierowski.

The nature hike we took through the woods, ended up in a surprise visit to a farm. We got lost and ended up behind the Russell's house and were given a tour to see a pony, chickens, roosters, rabbits and even geese. That trip is one we'll long remember.

Tuesday we opened our softball and hockey season on a sour note. We lost both games to Shawsheen. But with a day or two to think about our blunders, we came back against Sanborn to trounce them 15-0 in softball and 10-0 in hockey.

Jon Marc Brideau pitched a strong game with fine defensive support from his teammates. Dave Joners and Glenn Accaird provided a lot of offense.

In hockey, Jim MacMillan and Jon Marc Brideau and David Doucette all turned away shots for the shutout, while three players did all the scoring. Kim MacMillan led with 4 goals and Dave Jones and Mike Pantaleo each had 3 goals (hat trick.)

West

Things are really jumping as we swing into the 3rd week of summer at the Wild, Wild West. Our pet show last Thursday brought in everything from dogs to praying mantis, who by the way, won the most unusual pet award. Other winners were: Wendy and her dog Tippy for 1st place in the dog class. Greg and his hamster Fluffy for the beadiest eyes award. Tracey and her cat Frankie for the most formal award (he was wearing a red bow tie.)

Tomorrow, bring bathing suit and lunch. Then be prepared to get soaked, because the water balloons will be flying. Rumor has it that Myles is planning to stockpile his balloons so look out!

Recycling Program Results Encouraging

The first week of Andover's new recycling program, under a new contractor, has been termed a success by the recycling committee and John Lewis who oversees the town's refuse pickup and recycling programs.

There were very few complaints and the pickup service moved along much better than anticipated in view of a new contractor being on the job, it was reported.

The total tonnage even showed some increase, Lewis said, with 36 tons of paper collected.

This week's pickup of glass and tin combined, the first time the two materials have been mixed, also seemed to be going along well as of Monday and Tuesday.

Next week, the recycling pickup returns to the newspaper and corrugated pickup. The week after, mixed colored glass and tin cans will be picked up.

New cards indicating the pickup scheduled on a week-to-week basis are in the process of being printed and are expected to be ready for distribution next week.

The new system for glass and tin pickup, utilizing a packer body truck, is expected to eliminate much of the problems resulting from the old system of an open truck. At that time, town officials received continuing reports of broken glass in many neighborhoods.

It is felt that the new system will eliminate this problem.

Lewis emphasized that residents who discontinued participation in the program previously due to the problems, should consider returning to the weekly pickup program. The recycling effort, he noted is a training program for the day when regional solid waste pickup is implemented. Keeping the recyclable material from the tonnage brought to the regional plant will represent a savings to the town.

Efforts Made To Curb Crime

friendly greeting with a young man standing next to a late model sports car.

Not too long after the resident returned to his house, he was informed that the man standing by the car was apparently the watchman, standing by while the neighbor's house was rifled of valuable silver, collector's items, plates and antiques.

In the School street area, a strange car had been seen in the area for a period of several days by neighbors, none of whom reported the matter.

The result: one home broken into and resultant loss of thousands.

In the West Andover area, following a house break, some neighbors who had been sitting in a screened porch noticed a "foreign" car parked in the area and some men walking around in the area. No report of such activity was made to police who the next day were informed of a house break in which the home had been cleaned of silver and jewelry.

It is such incidences which are disturbing to police who would like to enlist the aid of everyone in reporting anything. It might turn out to be embarrassing that a neighbor has reported a strange car parked in the area only to find out that the vehicle is owned by a visiting brother-in-law.

Better the in-law meet the Andover police who are friendly under such circumstances, than to have the neighborhood put on the list of easy hits by professional thieves.

The Operation Identification program, initiated and supported by the selectmen early last month, is also a deterrent to house breaks.

Considerably apathy surrounded the program when it was suggested by Selectman Janet Lake in late May and early June. Insurance companies lent considerable support to the program, but the response was minimal at best.

The program calls for the use of an engraving tool, obtainable at the police station to mark valuable items with social security or license numbers.

A sticker on the door of the home informs would-be thieves that the items are marked, thus making it difficult to dispose of, or if caught with the items convincing evidence of their involvement.

The police station has 11 such engraving machines available for loan.

The increased patrols, and special assignments by the police department are being made at the height of the vacation season. While the specific assignments will have concentration on peak area of the community where house breaks have been prevalent, the entire town will be covered to the extent possible.

The hours of special patrols will also be varied in order to prevent would-be breakers from establishing a pattern to facilitate their work.

But, an important key to the success of the program aimed at reducing this $100,000 business of crime in Andover, is an alert citizenry providing police with an important extra tool in providing protection to the citizenry.

Accepts Bell Ringer Award

Robert H. O'Brien (right) of The Foxboro Company accepts Bell Ringer Award from Richard Berube, president; and Eleanor A. Addison, chairperson of the awards program for the Publicity Club of Boston.

O'Brien Receives Publicity Award

Robert H. O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Brien of 6 Sandy Brook Circle, Andover, received the 1975 Publicity Club of Boston Bell Ringer Award for Employee Communication at ceremonies held recently at the Colonnade Hotel in Boston. Mr. O'Brien is a communications specialist for The Foxboro Company in Foxboro.

Mr. O'Brien received the award for a Foxboro employee open house program conducted on May 3 and 4 of last year. More than 10,000 employees, their families and friends toured the Company facilities during the weekend program. A significant measure of the program's success was the subsequent increase in employee productivity.

Accepted At Wentworth

Several local residents have been accepted for admission to Wentworth Institute in Boston for the 1975-76 academic year, according to an announcement by Dr. Edward T. Kirkpatrick, Wentworth president.

The localities include: Mark E. Botsch, 105 Pine St. and Robert D. Murgia, 8 Canterbury St., both of Andover.

From North Andover, Michael A. Lowell, 133 Summer St., David Manzi, 440 Great Pond Road and Timothy F. Willis, 75 Waverly Road.

During World War II, the federal-state employment service was federalized and transferred to the War Manpower Commission.

LEGAL NOTICE

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
PROBATE COURT
Docket No. 330582

Essex, ss.

To all persons interested in the estate of FLORENCE M. PIERCY late of Andover in said County, deceased.

A petition has been presented to said Court praying that ROBERT H. MINASIAN of Andover, in the County of Essex be appointed administrator of said estate without giving a surety on his bond.

If you desire to object thereto you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said Court at Newburyport before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the twenty-eighth day of July, 1975, the return day of this citation.

Witness, ALBERT P. PETTORUTO, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this first day of July, 1975.

crease in employee productivity. The Company's 1974 annual report showed record shipments in the third and fourth quarters.

Mr. O'Brien graduated from Andover High School in 1968. He received his B.S. degree in public relations, summa cum laude, from the School of Public Communication at Boston University in 1972. He has also taken graduate courses in business administration at Babson College in Wellesley.

He joined the public relations group at Foxboro in June of 1972, and has worked on a wide variety of assignments in employee, community, investor relations, and product publicity. He was promoted to communications specialist in the sales promotion department in November, 1974.

Mr. O'Brien is a member of the Publicity Club of Boston and the Public Relations Society of America, and was recently elected to the board of directors of the Alumni Association for the School of Public Communication at Boston University. He resides in Boston.

Make Your Own Salad Dressing

With salad green prices at a seasonal low, it is a good time to analyze the cost of commercially prepared salad dressings, suggests the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture.

Name brand French and Italian dressings, for example, are selling as high as 59 cents per 8-ounce bottle. Eight ounces equals only one cup, though it may look like more in those tall, slim bottles; barely enough to coat a junior-size salad! With lettuce currently selling at 25 cents a head and lower, the cost of the dressing per salad is more than twice the cost of the greens.

Some high priced "convenience foods" will save you time in the kitchen, but homemade salad dressing takes hardly a minute to prepare. It will also cost less than half the price of the name brands.

To make your own 8-ounce bottle of oil and vinegar dressing for less than 28 cents, combine 3/4 cup vegetable oil, 1/4 cup vinegar, about 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, freshly ground if possible. For "French Dressing" you might add 1/2 teaspoon each of dry mustard and paprika, if you like. For "Italian Dressing" add 1/2 teaspoon each of crushed oregano and basil, a crushed garlic clove or a dash of garlic.

Other ways to save money instead of spending it on higher priced "convenience foods" are by preparing your own barbecue sauses, pie crusts instead of mixes, seasoned bread crumb coatings for meat and poultry, and, also, homemade casseroles instead of the costly packaged kind where "you add the meat."

Best buys this week in meat and poultry are beef liver, beef chuck blade roasts and steaks, smoked pork shoulder picnics, chicken livers, chicken and turkey parts.

In fish, there are good buys in frozen smelts, pollock, cod fillets, fresh mackerel and canned tuna.

In fresh vegetables, best buys are lettuce and salad greens, cabbage, carrots, radishes, zucchini and summer squash, green beans, scallions, celery and cherry tomatoes.

In fresh fruits, the best buys are plums, peaches, nectarines, watermelon, cantaloupes and bananas.

For up-to-date information on food prices, phone the "Food Shopper's Hot-Line." The toll-free number is 1-800-392-6026.

Tips on purchasing and the nutrition of the best food values are also offered on the phone message which is recorded Monday mornings and late Wednesday afternoons.

In 1974 the nation's scheduled airlines carried 208 million passengers, about six million more than the year before, while consuming about one billion fewer gallons of fuel.

State Determines White Low Bidder

J. F. White Construction Co., of Boston, has been determined to be the lowest responsible bidder on the West Andover trunk line sewer to the Hewlett-Packard plant property.

The Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries has informed the town of their decision following a hearing last week to determine if an error by the second low bidder could be considered.

J. D'Amico Construction Co., also of Boston, the second low bidder had erred in submitting its proposal, by indicating a unit cost. The firm had placed the word "eight" in the verbal portion of the bid and the figure "80" in the numeral section.

The difference would have placed D'Amico as the low bidder, depending on the acceptance of either the word or the figure.

The state labor and industries board reviewed the proposals at a hearing last week and in a finding sent to Town Manager J. Maynard Austin this week said, "The position of the department is that the initial bid of the J. F. White Construction Co., for $1,984,000, should stand as the lowest responsible bid."

Town Manager Austin said this week, that both contractors agreed in writing to abide by the decision given by the state labor board.

The agreement in writing should ease the way for the awarding of the contract, a key portion of the West Andover Industrial park development.

While the state was asked to make a determination, their decision is not binding according to counsel, and could have been appealed.

The decision also provides another smoothing of the path toward the combined development by the town and Hewlett-Packard which has construction of its first building well underway.

The trunk line sewer will serve the industrial park area and is within the $2.5 million appropriated at town meeting in 1973.

Another decision effecting the sewer line was also made this past week, when the city of Lawrence decided to join Methuen in resolving the city's ecological problems involving the filtration plant.

The city is under orders to remove backwash water from the filter plant from entering the Merrimack River. Originally it was felt the best solution was to pipe the water across the Merrimack to the new trunk line, which would have mandated a larger pipe and for which alternate bids were received.

Now, the city has found that the route using the Methuen sewer lines will be more economical, and thus will use that route.

Austin also reported this week that other details of the project, such as agreements between the town and Hewlett-Packard and Arkwright/Boston Insurance Co., owners of the industrial land, are moving along well with all elements coming together in orderly fashion.

Report Cards Mailed

Final report cards for the year for Andover High School students were placed in the mails Wednesday, July 16, according to Assistant Principal Wilbur Hixon.

New Bylaws Approved

The action was prompted by the large number of dogs roaming freely about the town and breaking open the plastic trash bags thus leaving a mess on the streets of the community.

Initially, various methods were used to discourage the inquisitive canines, but the dogs seem to have mastered all obstacles and continued breaking open the plastic trash bags.

Town officials decided to recommend the further restraint at this year's town meeting.

Prior to that, dogs were ordered restrained only during hours as when children would be going to and from school.

The public consumption of alcoholic beverages bylaw was prompted by problems of youths drinking in The Park at East Junior High school and causing a nuisance there last summer. The problem also was prevalent in other areas of the town and the police felt that they needed this enforcement tool to properly handle the matter.

The new bylaw allows the police to apprehend persons creating a nuisance or disturbance through either consumption of possession of alcoholic beverages in public areas of the community.

Other bylaws adopted at town meeting and also approved include the establishment of a fine of $25 for violation of the animal control regulations, prohibiting soliciting in the community by sales persons unless prior approval has been received by the police department. The new law permits solicitation only from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A bylaw providing that businessmen on the main street must clear their walks of snow and ice was also approved by the attorney general.

Still awaiting approval are some new zoning regulations, also approved at town meeting and expected to be approved at the state level this week.

Mrs. Hammond Conservation Chairman

The Andover Conservation Commission has recently elected Mrs. Virginia Hammond, chairman. She succeeds Joseph Monan who had served as a member and chairman for a period of over ten years.

Mr. Monan was honored by his colleagues in June for his over a decade of service.

Other commission officers elected include Atty. Stephen Duly, vice chairman and Mrs. Virginia Riddiford, secretary.

Dr. Richard Secord and Dr. Edward Lenoe are new appointees to the commission and join with Robert M. Henderson and Albert Alexander to complete the board membership.

The conservation commission now controls almost 500 acres of land used for the preservation of open space, recreation, nature study and farming. Most of this land has been acquired with the intent of protecting town watersheds or wetlands.

The commission has recently authorized the trail committee to prepare a comprehensive open space map of Andover, soon to be available to the townspeople and bicentennial visitors.
